

Press release*Standard Chartered sets up NRI Desk in Bangladesh for Indian Expatriates

07 October 2021, India – Standard Chartered has announced the setting up of the Bangladesh-India Non-Resident Indian (NRI) desk for Indian expatriates in Bangladesh. Through this dedicated NRI desk, Indian expatriates will enjoy access to a full range of banking services, seamlessly integrating their banking experience across Bangladesh and their home country.

Through NRI banking, clients will be able to:

- Easily connect with the relevant Standard Chartered team for support with NRI Banking solutions.
- Enjoy value-added services such as financial insights from a dedicated team of specialists and relationship managers and special rates on foreign exchange conversions for all inward remittances into an NRI account held with Standard Chartered Bank, India.
- Access the Bank's online banking platform and SC Mobile app and enjoy global link facility on digital banking platforms to connect multiple accounts.

Naser Ezaz Bijoy, Chief Executive Officer at Standard Chartered, Bangladesh, said, "With a legacy that runs over a century in many of our markets, we are uniquely positioned to serve the needs of our clients at home and abroad. Through the Expat Banking solution, we hope to help our clients stay close to home, regardless of distance, and harness our unmatched network and digital capabilities to elevate their banking experience. The NRI Desk is only the start of the journey, and we will be delivering more such catered experiences for the expatriate communities in Bangladesh.

Nitin Chengappa, Head, Non-Resident Indian Business, Standard Chartered Bank, India, said, "Over the years, we have been building our franchise in the key markets we operate in, to connect people across borders. The Bangladesh-India NRI desk aims to make banking a lot more convenient and seamless with easy access to banking solutions in Bangladesh as well as India. With access to our digital banking platforms that link both the India and Bangladesh accounts, special remittance rates and dedicated team of wealth specialists based in India, we will provide a true International Banking experience to our NRI customers."
